

Focus Activity: Just Say No

Just Say “NO”

Learn how to say “NO”

- There is a potentially endless stream of requests for your time. Don't let these unplanned requests derail your planned activities.
- Before you say yes to anything, evaluate the time and the commitment and ask if it measures up to your values.
- Everything you do (or don't do) counts. Everything has a consequence – even if it isn't immediately obvious.
- Learning to say “no” is both important and empowering.
